

HOUSE RULES

- Bingo game cards and pull tabs are valid only for session issued.
- No refunds or exchanges made for unused paper specials or packages.
- No pack splitting allowed.
- You must purchase an electronic or paper buy-in to be seated in the Bingo Hall.
- No packages can be purchased after intermission of each session.
- If a player must leave before the end of a session, their buy-in will not be refunded.
- If there is a mechanical malfunction on the electronic machines (PhD's™), all usage will be discontinued until the malfunction is resolved.
- Daubers must be used for all bingo games with the exception of Thunder 8 — VIPick'em™.
- Player's receipt must be signed prior to the start of games and displayed at all times.
- It is the responsibility of the player to yell "BINGO" loud enough for the caller to stop the game.
- The last number in the pattern must be called to be a winner.
- Once the game is closed or the letter of the next ball is called, no previous bingo will be honored and the game shall continue.
- Altered, mutilated or defaced bingo cards, pull tabs or door prize tickets are invalid.
- Serial numbers will be verified on all cards prior to payment or prize.
- Bingo prize winners of $1,200 or more must present one form of valid identification, i.e. state issued driver's licenses (also Canadian provinces or foreign countries), state issued ID cards, passports, military ID, resident alien cards, or Law Enforcement ID. A second form of identification is required or a signed W9.
- Jackpot winnings may not be transferred to another person.
- If more than one "BINGO" is called, the payoff will be divided and rounded down.
- Use of a substitute player is limited to one game but if there is a bingo, the substitute player cannot yell bingo.
- One electronic unit per player per session. No other player may play the assigned unit.
